

‘HOSPITALITY AND SANCTUARY FOR ALL’

“I was a stranger and you welcomed me...”
[Matthew 25:35]

Border crossing is a crucial contemporary issue. No one chooses to be a refugee. No one wants to leave home. The vast majority of people do not move to another country. However, dangers to life force people to move. Each year up to 1 billion people cross a border. Every two seconds, a person is forced to flee for safety. Every day 44,000 more people are driven from their homes.

As well as providing vital background information, this new edition of ‘Hospitality and Sanctuary for All’ by Inderjit Bhogal and produced by Churches Together in Britain and Ireland (CTBI), addresses the issue of refugees and immigration from a Biblical perspective.

This resource for churches, offers prompts for conversation and reflection on the theme of hospitality and sanctuary. It contains suggested group discussions and activities and can also be used for personal study and reflection. The Order of Service provided can be used at an Act of Worship (midweek or on a Sunday e.g. Sanctuary Sunday or Racial Justice Sunday).
